

SCIS Terms and conditions of sale

Applies to SCIS subscriptions, SCIS products and barcode scanners

All orders placed with SCIS are firm orders and are not subject to 'a change of mind'.

SCIS Subscriptions are annual standing orders and operate on a calendar year cycle (January – December).

Product use is subject to the copyright requirements as outlined in the Licence agreement included with the product.

Orders are processed daily. The turn around time is approximately ten working days (depending upon postage times from Melbourne).

Payment is required within 30 days of invoice date.

Payment must be in Australian dollars.

Return is only acceptable in cases of incorrect supply by Curriculum Corporation or their suppliers, goods damaged in transit or faulty goods.

Notification of incorrect supply, incorrect invoices or damaged goods must be made within 7 days of invoice.

Damaged and incorrectly supplied goods will be replaced at Curriculum Corporation's expense.

Authority to return goods must be obtained from SCIS staff prior to any return.

Credits will only be issued when necessary for incorrect invoices.

All prices are recommended only and are subject to change without notice.

Disclaimer

All the information in SCIS brochures is provided in good faith and is current at time of publication. The contents are subject to change at the sole discretion of Curriculum Corporation.

Curriculum Corporation provides MARC sample data and data formats to library software suppliers dealing with Australasian schools. Curriculum Corporation advises schools to contact their library software supplier before ordering SCISWeb or SCIS Authority Files to ensure that their system can import the data.

Curriculum Corporation gives no other warranty, express or implied, and has no liability for consequential loss or damage of any nature from the use or inability to use SCIS products.
